Hank & My Honky Tonk Heroes Sunday, September 9, 2018 - 7:00 pm

Nostalgic look at Hank Williams and his influence on country music performed by Obie Award-winning singer/actor Jason Petty who brings Hank's music back to life paying tribute to artists such as Jimmie Rodgers, Roy Acuff, Ernest Tubb and The Carter Family. A must-see for all country music fans!

Eaglemaniacs - Saturday, November 3, 2018 - 7:00 pm

This group of exceptionally talented veteran studio musicians and singers can boast of discographies that total into the 100's of millions of copies sold by multiple artists. It was their love for the iconic and timeless music of the Eagles that brought this group of remarkable musicians together to form "The Eaglemaniacs".

African American Choral Ensemble, directed by Dr. Raymond Wise IU Soul Revue, directed by James Strong Saturday, February 16, 2019 - 7:00 pm

Sing, clap, and groove with Indiana University's African American Choral Ensemble and IU Soul Revue. In this special combined performance, the Choral Ensemble will present a range of African American choral music — from inspiring Gospel songs and spirituals to formally-composed works. Then get on your feet for the funky sounds of the IU Soul Revue, bringing you back to Black popular music from the 1960s through contemporary R&B and soul hits. The African American Choral Ensemble and IU Soul Revue are student ensembles managed by the African American Arts Institute at Indiana University Bloomington.

The Nelons - Saturday, April 6, 2019 - 7:00 pm

Tight family harmonies, timeless songs and a passion for worship, The Nelons have recorded more than 35 albums with chart-topping Southern Gospel classics. Their vocal excellence and stunning live performances have been featured on the Gaither Homecoming recordings and at The Grand Ole Opry. Faith. Family. Vision.

All performances at Bedford-North Lawrence High School Performing Arts Center, Bedford, Indiana
